JUST A BIT OF USEFUL INFORMATION

This book is published to serve as a guide to the values of rare and premium United States coins. The prices quoted, are those we pay for coins in GOOD to PROOF condition. If a coin is quoted at $1.00 to $10.00, it means that we will pay $1.00 for the coin, if it is in good condition, between $1.00 and $10.00, depending on the condition of the coin. If the coin is bent or otherwise mutilated, it will not even be worth the $1.00!

The FACE VALUE OF A COIN IS ALWAYS INCLUDED IN THE PRICE QUOTATION! If a half-dollar is quoted at 50 cents, it indicates that it is worth only Face Value. Coins having only face value (having No Premium) are not wanted. We do NOT buy these coins.

Do not write asking for special quotations on a particular coin you may have. Just check your coin with the listing in this book. If it is listed as having a premium, and is in good condition, send the coin to us. We must see the coin to give an intelligent quotation. Always include sufficient postage for returning your coin, in case we cannot buy it.

Small lots of coins may be sent by registered mail. Large shipments or very valuable shipments should be sent by express. Please mail us a list of the contents of all express shipments. We do not accept express shipments, unless you first mail us a list of the contents.

Please enclose self-addressed, stamped envelope with all your requests for information. We receive thousands of letters every week, and the postage on replies would amount to a considerable sum. Please cooperate with us on this matter. Eliminating this postage expense allows us to pay you higher prices for your coins.

WRITE PLAINLY, or better still, print your name and address. We are very anxious to have our coin payment checks and replies to your letters, reach you promptly. In every mail we get letters with no name or return address. These people think that we are negligent in answering their correspondence, when actually we have no way of replying to their inquiries. Despite all care, errors will occur. Many times mail does go astray, or is delayed. ----- REMEMBER, if non-delivery of your mail occurs, write to us for a direct explanation. We may not be at fault. There are three links to the mail-order chain, YOURSELF, THE U. S. MAILS and OURSELVES. If any link is defective, an error occurs.

CONDITION OF COINS

The condition of your coins is one of the most important factors in determining their value to a collector. Just as a brand new automobile is worth many times the price of an old banged up jalopy, so a perfect coin is worth much more than one worn or bent or in any other way mutilated. The following classifications of coin condition are used by most coin collectors, and on these classifications are based the prices we pay for the coins.

PROOF...

Coins that have been struck from polished dies, using polished blanks. The surface of a Proof coin is mirror-like.

UNCIRCULATED...

A coin that has been kept in brand new condition, showing no signs of wear.

EXTRA FINE...

Coins that have been circulated but show only very faint signs of wear.

FINE...

Shows circulation but only worn on high points. Design and detail still very sharp.

GOOD...

A coin that has had considerable circulation and wear, but with every part of the lettering and basic design still plain.

FAIR...

Well worn, but enough of the design sufficiently strong to recognize the coin and its date. Pieces in this condition are not worth as much as the better coins. Still many coins in only Fair condition are worth a Premium!

UNITED STATES MINTS

The Mint of the United States was established at Philadelphia by resolution of Congress dated April 6, 1792, and the first coins were struck at the new Mint in March of the following year.

In addition to the Philadelphia Mint, the U. S. Government has from time to time established Branch Mints. Branch Mints are now operating in Denver and in San Francisco. The San Francisco Mint has been operating since 1854 and the Denver Mint since 1906. There was a Branch Mint in operation at New Orleans from 1838 to 1861 and again from 1879 to 1909. The Mint at Carson City, Nevada, from 1870 to 1893; at Charlotte, North Carolina, from 1838 to 1861; and at Dahlonega, Georgia, from 1838 to 1861.

The letters to signify the various Mints are as follows:

C—For Charlotte, North Carolina (on gold coins only)

CC—For Carson City, Nevada

D—For Dahlonega, Georgia (gold coins only, 1838 to 1861)

D—Denver, Colorado (from 1906 to date)

O—For New Orleans, Louisiana

P—For Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

S—For San Francisco, California

LOCATION OF MINT MARKS

- Half Cents — All coined at Philadelphia, no Mint mark.
- Large Cents — All coined at Philadelphia, no Mint mark.
- Flying Eagle Cents — All coined at Philadelphia, no Mint mark.
- Indian Cents — 1908 and 1909, under the wreath on reverse side.
- Lincoln Cents — Under the date.
- Two Cents, Three Cent Nickels — All coined at Philadelphia, no Mint mark.
- Three Cent Silver — All coined at Philadelphia except 1851, New Orleans Mint — reverse side at right.
- Shield Nickels — All coined at Philadelphia, no Mint mark.
- Liberty Nickels — All coined at Philadelphia except 1912 S and D, on reverse side to left of word cents.
- Buffalo Nickels — Reverse side under words Five Cents.
- Jefferson Nickels — Reverse side at right of the building (before 1942).
- Jefferson Five Cent Pieces (Silver) — Above dome on reverse.
- Half Dimes — Reverse side either within or below the wreath.
- Dimes — Old type on reverse side below or within wreath; Mercury type (1916 to date) on the reverse side to left of the fasces.
- Twenty Cents — Reverse, under the eagle.
- Quarter Dollars — Old type on reverse under eagles; Standing Liberty type (after 1916) obverse to left of date; Washington type on reverse under eagle.
- Half Dollars — 1838 and 1839 O Mint mark over date; other dates to 1915 on reverse under eagle; 1917 S and D with Mint marks on reverse on some copies; on obverse on some copies. Made both ways that year. After 1917 on lower left reverse.
- Dollars — Old type, on reverse under eagle; Peace type (1921 and after) on reverse near eagle's wing.
- Trade Dollars — On reverse under eagle.
- Gold Dollars — Reverse under wreath.
- Quarter Eagles ($2.50) — 1838 and 1839 over the date; other dates previous to 1907 on reverse under eagle; Indian type (1908 to 1929) on reverse lower left.
- Three Dollar Pieces — Reverse under the wreath.
- Half Eagles ($5.00) — Same as Quarter Eagles.
- Eagles ($10.00) — Reverse under eagle; after 1907 at left of value.
- Double Eagles ($20.00) — Old type on reverse under eagle; St. Gaudens (after 1907) above the date.

We would like to stress the importance of the Mint Mark. Above is a complete list of the location of the Mint Mark. Every day we receive coins with accompanying letters saying, "Here is my valuable coin, but I can't see the Mint Mark." If you carefully inspect the coin, looking in the correct place, you will find the Mint Mark, if the coin has one. This Mint Mark can make the difference of many dollars in the value of a coin. For example, the 1909 Indian Head Penny. Without the small S Mint Mark on the reverse side, under the wreath, the 1909 Indian Penny is worth only face value of one cent. However if it has the S Mint Mark, this 1909 Indian Penny could be worth as much as $10.00! Always carefully check to see if your coin has the correct Mint Mark.

The bust of Liberty which appeared on the cent and half-cent in 1793, the only denominations struck that first year of the operation of the mint, is a copy of the bust on the medal made by the celebrated French artist, Dupre, to commemorate the victories of Saratoga and Yorktown. At first the liberty pole of the medal was omitted from the coin, but before the end of the year, that detail too, was added.

The large cent is a very interesting, and popular series. These large cents were coined during the period of 1793 to 1857 except 1815. All large cents were coined at the Philadelphia Mint.

The word CENT is taken from the Latin CENTUM, meaning a hundredth part.

HISTORY OF THE FLYING EAGLE

The Flying Eagle appearing on our silver dollars of 1836, 1838 and 1839, and on the small cents of 1856, 1857 and 1858, is a reproduction of "Peter" — a tame Eagle, pet of the Philadelphia Mint for many years.

Peter had free access to every part of the Mint, going in and out of the Treasury vaults, where even the Treasurer of the United States would not go alone. Peter would fly around the city, sometimes perching upon the lamp-posts in the streets.

Everybody knew him. The government provided food, and he was very much a part of the Mint.

He was so kindly treated that he had no fear of anybody or anything, and he might have been a part of the Mint for many more years if he had not sat down on one of the machines. The machine started unexpectedly, and Peter's wing was broken. He died a few days later. His body was beautifully mounted with the wings fully spread. Peter now stands in a glass case in the Mint. He was the model for the beautiful "Flying Eagle" design on the above mentioned coins.

The portrait depicted on the Indian Penny is not of an Indian, but that of a little white girl, Sarah Longacre. When she was about 12 years old she visited her father at the mint in Philadelphia where he was employed as Chief Engraver. At that time, a party of Indians were being shown through the mint. One of the Indians placed his head-dress on the little girl. The senior Longacre sketched his daughter wearing this head-dress. This sketch was used as a model for the Indian Head Penny.

We buy complete sets of Lincoln Pennies. Prices range from $10.00 to $50.00 for the complete set, starting 1909 to 1945. Holders for this set are now available. Please see Page 32 for complete details.

The first year of the Lincoln Cent, 1909, comes with and without the small letters "VDB" on the reverse near the lower edge. These letters are the initials of the designer, Victor D. Brenner. There was a protest about placing the initials on the coin, and they were removed. They were replaced on the cents of 1918 and thereafter in new position. They are in small letters under Lincoln's bust. It takes a magnifying glass to see them.

James E. Fraser, who designed the Buffalo Nickel, used three different Indians to obtain the portrait on the reverse side. These were Irontail, Two Moons and a Cheyenne Chief. The bison was modeled after "Black Diamond" in the New York Zoological Garden. The famous animal was slaughtered in 1915 and his massive head was preserved and mounted.

PEACE TYPE DOLLAR

— 1921 to 1935.

The mintage of these dollars was originally urged by the American Numismatic Association. The coin was supposed to commemorate the victory of World War I and the Peace of the World.

At this time, the Peace Dollar is worth only face value.

TRADE DOLLARS

Coined from 1873 to 1885

1873 to 1883 ----- $ .60 $ 1.00

1884 Proof only ----- 100.00
1885 Proof only ----- 250.00

(These two dates are exceedingly rare and were not known until recent years, when they were discovered in a collection of proof sets.)

The Trade Dollar, the heaviest U. S. Dollar; issued for use in competition for markets in the Orient. The experiment seems to have been an unhappy one, for the Trade Dollars were repudiated by an Act of Congress in 1884, being the only United States coin to be demonetized and therefore no longer legal money. They are technically worth only the bullion value of their silver content.

On the obverse of the gold and silver of 1795 there are fifteen stars and later we find as many as sixteen stars, the number in each case corresponding to the number of states to which the Union had grown. The same practice of adding a star for each state was also begun on the reverse, but because of the large number of stars that would soon be required, they were limited to thirteen, the number of the Original States.

Proof coins, in all metals, were first struck at the Mint for collectors in 1858. They have a mirror-like surface unlike the regular issue. All such Proof pieces were originally sold at a premium. This practice was abolished in 1915 but was again resumed in 1936. Proof sets were struck from 1936 to 1942. This practice will be resumed after more normal conditions prevail.

HERE'S AN EASY $50.00

We have such a terrific demand for complete Lincoln Penny Sets, that we do not have time to assemble them, much less, we do not have time to search through hundreds of pennies, sorting the different dates and mint marks.

SO, we would like you to do this sorting for us! Do it in your spare time and whenever you feel like taking a minutes relaxation. Look through your pocket change and pick out the different dates. You'll be surprised how quickly you can assemble the entire set. Remember these aren't old coins, the Lincoln Penny series is still young. The oldest one being made in 1909. When you have completed the series, 1909 to 1945, all dates and mint marks, 105 in all, send them to us and we will send you our check immediately.

"How much will I get?", you ask.

Well, here's the wonderful part of the story. We Absolutely Guarantee to pay you at least ten dollars, and if your pennies are in perfect condition we will pay as high as $50.00.

THAT'S RIGHT! $50.00 for 105 pennies . . . 5000% profit.

WHERE CAN YOU FIND A BETTER DEAL?

Start right now. Look through the pennies in your pocket. Aren't you surprised at the different dates you already have? Lay these aside, they're your start toward that $50.00.

We have been asked by the many people who save coins for us, if we had some way to keep the pennies as they find them, so the coins wouldn't become lost or misplaced. We have also been asked for a list of the different dates and mint marks, so they would know when they had the complete set.

To answer both these needs, we now have The Franklin Coin Album. This album is heavily constructed and is bound in beautiful Royal Blue simulated leather. When opened, it contains 105 tiny compartments, each just large enough to hold one penny. Below each compartment is the date and mint mark of the coin that goes there. By following the markings in the album, you know that each coin is properly placed. You know that you are getting closer to your $50.00! These albums sell for one dollar each. However, as soon as you sell us a Lincoln Penny Set, we will send you a new coin album, ABSOLUTELY FREE! These albums make such splendid gifts, that many people order several for their friends. If you wish to do this, we sell six albums for Five Dollars.

A FREE GIFT!! ➡ As a free gift to you, we will include with each coin album, a pocket size register. This register can show you quick as a wink, what pennies you already have and what coins you need to complete your set. ➡ SEND FOR YOURS
